

2011 Youth Ministry Forum Faculty

The Rev. Rebecca E. Glass, M.Div., M.Ed.
Associate Director for Community Relations,
Peninsula Pastoral Counseling Center, Newport News VA

Licensed Professional Counselor with areas of specialty in depression/anxiety, parenting, stress management, self-care, and spirituality. She has served as an Associate Pastor at Hampton BC, Hampton and a campus minister at Christopher Newport University.

Stan Ham

Stan joined the Transportation Security Administration in April 2003 in the capacity of Security Manager at Dulles International Airport. He served in that position for 3 years before joining the Office of Collaborative Strategies where he has served as the Program Coordinator for the National Advisory Council since May, 2006.

David Haun
Minister with Youth and College Students
Fredericksburg Baptist Church, Fredericksburg VA

David Haun born in Louisville Kentucky and raised as a "Pastor's Kid." David has lived in Fredericksburg Virginia for the past 29 years. He is a graduate of East Carolina University with a bachelor degree in Athletic Training. Following graduation David began working at Chancellor High School for two years as a Certified Athletic Trainer. In 2005 David felt God calling him to full time ministry. He began working for Fredericksburg Baptist Church in June 2005 as the Youth and College Minister. David is married to his beautiful wife Lindsey since July 2005. David and Lindsey were blessed in December 2009 with the birth of their son Owen.

Josh Hayden
Youth Pastor, Cornerstone Baptist Church, Warrenton VA

Originally from Louisville, Kentucky, Josh is now living in Warrenton, VA where he is an Associate Pastor at Cornerstone Church. He is married to Shey, and they have two sons Rowan and Eli. Josh graduated from James Madison University with a B.A. in English, and also graduated from The John Leland Center for Theological Studies in Arlington, VA with a Masters of Divinity. In 2010, Josh published a book, Sacred Hope, to help students explore what it looks like to live into the hope God has for our lives.

Mark Oestreicher

"Marko" has been involved in church ministry his whole life, particularly with teenagers and youth workers. Marko has had a broad experience working in churches across the country, in roles ranging from Junior High Pastor to Executive Pastor. For 11 years, Marko was the president of Youth Specialties in San Diego, an organization that trains and equips church youth workers. He now speaks, coaches, consults and trains youth leaders across the country and beyond.

Danny Quirin

Danny began his ministry at Bonsack Baptist Church, Roanoke VA, in January, 1996. A native of Grand Rapids, Michigan, he grew up in Northern Virginia where he met his wife. They married in July of 1983 and now have four children. In 1993 Danny and his family moved to Louisville, Kentucky, where he attended the Southern Baptist Theological Seminary. He received a Diploma in Christian education with a concentration in youth ministry in December 1995.

Paul Simmons

Before joining the Transportation Security Administration, Paul was an associate and youth pastor for over 20 years and has a Masters in Theology/Education from Southwestern Seminary. He conducted mission trips to South Africa, Belize, Peru, Canada and the United States.

Paul currently works for TSA as the Customer Service Quality Improvement Manager at O'Hare International Airport. Paul was also the project lead for the design of the TSA Headquarters conflict management system which includes an Employee Advisory Council.